

Objectives

The objectives of this comprehension and fluency lesson are as follows:

- To teach a first-grade lesson which would include the following skills components:
  - Expand comprehension by questioning ideas and information; then revisit the questions to confirm whether they were answered in the story.
  - Model the following comprehension strategies: checking for understanding, crosschecking, inferring, and synthesizing.
  - Model fluent reading, using appropriate phrasing, pacing and pausing.
- To demonstrate strategies for involving and engaging all students.
